1. Why are you interested in attending LTLC?
2. What kind of qualities do you feel a Catholic teen leader should possess?
3. Of the qualities you listed, which of them do you possess and which can you improve on?
4. In what ways do you desire to grow spiritually by attending LTLC?
5. Everyone has his or her own relationship with God. How would you describe yours?
6. What is your prayer life like?

Teen Commitment

It is important to know that leadership begins now. No one can lead if they are not around, and no one can be a good leader if they are not attempting to remain faithful to the Gospel message. By applying for LTLC, you are committing to the following (as best as your schedule allows):

- Faithfulness to Lifeteen Mass, Lifenights, and Bible Study, as well as attending Lifeteen Retreat in the Spring Semester.
- Commitment to daily prayer on your own
- A sense of hospitality to those that are new to Life Teen and building a welcoming and “family” type community at Lifeteen.
- A good role model to peers at school and at home
- A full commitment to all LTLC sessions and a commitment to leadership upon return

Please know that if the above requirements (even after being accepted) are not met, you will not be able to attend LTLC.

I have prayerfully discerned this opportunity and have answered the questions honestly. I have also read and understand the Teen Commitment and understand what it is asking of me.
